Subject: RE: Senior Status Judge Schlaegel

I'm trying to make a little FAQ sheet for Senior Status Judge purposes, and I cannot find the statute that says they can earn a higher cap than the $20,000 everybody else can earn after retiring. I know it has to be in the information Kathleen left behind somewhere, but I can't find it, and I couldn't find it on my own in a westlaw search. Do either of you know where this is in the Code?

THANK YOU!
Jennifer S.

Judge Hoke [REDACTED] on June 1 and senior status Judge Schlaegel has been assigned to cover for him. Judge Hoke could be out for possibly 8 weeks (see the attached order of assignment).

I just wanted to give you a heads up because you should be receiving per diem forms from him soon.

MEMORANDUM # 12-13

TO: SENIOR STATUS JUDGES

FROM: KATHLEEN GROSS Kathleen
Deputy Administrative Director

DATE: 6 June 2012

SUBJECT: Per Diem and Reimbursement Information

The following is information about the current per diem and the allowable reimbursements.

Per Diem:

By Administrative Order, the Court established $435 as the daily per diem for Senior Status Judges.

Limitations: “[P]er diem and retirement compensation of a senior judge shall not exceed the salary of a sitting judge. . .” W. V. Code 51-9-10 (1991). Judges Retirement System.

W. V. Public Employees Retirement Act, W. V. Code 5-10-48 (2011) states: “A retirant may accept temporary full-time or temporary part-time employment. . . so long as he or she does not receive annual compensation in excess of $15,000.”

Expense Reimbursement:

Mileage: The current reimbursement rate is .555/miles. I shall send you a notice when this changes.

Daily living Expenses: An over-night stay is required to be reimbursed for any meals and reimbursement is based on U. S. General Services Administration allowances. Currently, in Charleston and Shepherdstown, the daily rate is $51 with the first and last days at $38.50. Currently, in the rest of West Virginia, including Morgantown and Wheeling, the daily rate is $46 with the first and last days at $34.50. I shall send you a notice when this changes.
